Classmates and friends—At last we have reached the port for which we have been striving these past four years—namely, the port of graduation. We have passed through thick and thin, overpowered all obstacles and worked with constant strife, but not without a reward. We may now face the world feeling safe and fully fitted to set ourselves among those who have already entered into it.

As we look among us we find that many who started with us are missing tonight. Although they are with us no more, we can see that they still feel that they are linked with us, even though we have climbed to the top, taking advantage of opportunities which were denied to them.

We have been given every chance to make the most of our opportunities. We have been blessed with a new school, a good faculty, and parents who have sacrificed much that we might obtain this education.

The time is close when we will be pledged to travel along our own path. We take our stand with pride and pleasure when we look back and find that we have left a splendid reputation, a host of friends, and a world of never-to-be-forgotten memories; and knowing that we have reflected honor and faithfulness upon our school.

On behalf of the class of 1931 I wish to take this occasion to thank the faculty for all they have done for us. They have worked hard in trying to accomplish some things which seemed almost impossible. I now wish to extend to them our hearty appreciation for their willing efforts, which are beyond our power to repay.

Undergraduates—No doubt, you are impatiently awaiting the time when you will have successfully entered the port of graduation. It is up to you to uphold the reputation and high standing of our school, by your help and cooperation. Show to your successors the value of your education and love for your school by your faithfulness, loyalty, obedience and honor.

Classmates—The four years that we have spent together have been the happiest years of our life. We may cherish the memories. Do not look upon Branford High as a place of struggle and strife, but as a store house of happiness. Let us continue to be enrolled among its members by giving our help and support. Let us go into the world with great strength and determination. Let us meet both luck and fate with a smile. For the past four years we have worked and played together. However far we may drift we shall always know that we have striven with untiring efforts together and have met success together. At last we must say "Good-Bye." In closing let me say that I wish to every one of you, my classmates, the best of fortunes in your life's work, and I feel that throughout your life you may be pleased to say that you have gained your high school education in dear old Branford High.

Class History

EDITH STANNARD

Like a river passing out to meet the sea, we, the class of thirty-one, go out to meet the duties which this graduation enables us to assume.

Classmates—For the past four years we have studied to attain the honor and pleasure which this day brings to us all.

Let us pause for a moment and recall the memories of our high school years. We saw many a stern upper classman staring us in the face as we hobbled up the rickety stairs to "Nigger Heaven." It was evident that our petulance was noticeable, for we were constantly being tormented by a group who were later identified as sophomores. Our first intelligent business transaction took place when the class officers were elected. They were as follows: Edith Rank, president; Joe Purcell, vice-president; John Batrow, secretary, and Dorothy Goldsmith, treasurer. Our great social climb was manifested by the Freshman play given at the Christmas assembly in Library Hall. Later we held our Freshman dance, which was a great success.

Time sped by so rapidly that before we realized it we were entering our sophomore year. We went through the same routine of electing class officers, and set out to exhibit a more intelligent expression on our faces, as is the custom of Sophomores. The following officers were elected: Joe Purcell, president; George Averill, vice-president; Ellsworth Harrison, secretary, and Dick Tyler, treasurer. Our Sophomore Hop, which was well supported by the student body, was held in Red Men's Hall.

The following year the new High School, which was made possible by the people of the town of Branford, was opened for our use. We continued to gain wisdom and confidence, which surmounted the difficulties we encountered in our junior year. The election of officers took place as in previous classes. They were: Joe Purcell, president; Vera Jackson, vice-president; Lena Ham, secretary, and Margaret McKeon, treasurer. The greatest festival of our high school career then confronted us, the Junior Prom. We selected a committee whose initiative enabled them to carry the great responsibility. Being the unexcelled social of any class, it met with much enthusiasm. During this year our High School Basket Ball team had a very successful season. They had the honor and pleasure of going to Storrs to compete for the Class C and D championship. They won the three games which they played and came home with their faces shining as brightly as their trophy, the silver cup. At the graduation of the class of nineteen thirty the honor of receiving the Harvard Book prize was bestowed on Stephen G. Zvonkovic, a member of our class. This prize is given annually to the boy who has accomplished the most in his first three years of High School work.

Last but not least came our senior year. We, true to form, clothed ourselves in dignity. We elected our senior officers as follows: Joe Purcell, president; John Batrow, vice-president; Margaret McKeon, secretary, and Peter Batrow, treasurer. This year our football squad, under the management of Mr. Knecht, came through on top. They were the only undefeated team of the Housatonic League. We owe many compliments to Mr. Knecht on his work and the encouragement he has given our boys. Our attention was then drawn to organizing a senior dramatic club. This club, under the unprecedented advice and supervision of Miss Murphy, later presented the Shakespearean play, "The Taming of the Shrew." The election of the class book committee then went under way. Stephen G. Zvonkovic was elected Editor-in-Chief. The senior dance, which was the last social of our High School life, was then given.

Now that we have finished our courses in the Branford High School, we are ready to go out into the world with this education as a background for our future careers. Though we may meet greater burdens in our future life, we will conquer them with the same determination we have used in reaching this goal.

WILLIAM DENNISON

Valedictory

STEPHEN GEORGE ZVONKOVIC

The celebration of this momentous occasion has underneath it all a profound significance. It symbolizes the culmination of our secondary course; it marks the apex of our desires, and it suggests the possible future course we may enter upon, with the education here obtained as a background.

What makes this an occasion of significance with us is the fact that at this celebration we have an opportunity to express our thanks to those who have made this occasion a reality. But there are many occasions when we find that words cannot convey our genuine meaning; tonight is one of them.

Parents and friends, no words can adequately convey our sincere feeling, our gratitude for your kindness, your sympathetic consideration and your untiring efforts in our behalf. In some respects this occasion does for us what a master-musician can do on his instrument—that is—bring out the fine inner self-expression of the soul. We of the graduating class know what you parents have done for us; we are fully aware of the fact that our interest has always been, and is at this present moment, your chief concern. For your magnaminity of heart, for your unselfishness we do not know how to thank you enough.

Mr. Westcott and members of the Board of Education, I, as representative of this class, shall enter upon no encomium of your concern for our welfare. Here we stand, the product of your efforts. Like all graduating classes we know what you have meant and what you mean to us; and we also know that we can best please you by enhancing the name of Branford High simultaneously with our own.

Mr. Carr and members of the faculty, to you our hearts extend in gratitude. Working with you has been a source of inspiration and pleasure. Your deep appreciation and understanding of youth, your eagerness to aid us, and your untiring efforts in our behalf have made you, in our eyes, more than teachers. It is through your efforts that we begin to see the beauty of life and for this we are ever thankful to you.

Undergraduates, to you we extend our earnest desire for a brilliant future. Complete surrender of self is necessary, not only in the reading of poetry, in the enjoyment of the fruits of religion, but also in High School life; for the more time you spend in the fulfillment of your assignments, the greater will be your content when the supreme moment, like this one, comes.

CLASSMATES:

It is with a feeling of deep regret that we assemble here, at this formal gathering, for the last time. Not that we regard this moment, this occasion, of no significance, but that we consider our loss greater than our gain. Engaging in retrospect we reflect upon four years of intimate friendship and contact. We cannot deny that we have had a splendid time. We all know and feel that the advantage has been ours; the contact, the instruction, the paternal-like cooperation of our instructors. True, that to graduate is a sign of progress, but when this progress means losing something we shall never regain, being cut off from a unique period in life, unique in that it is probably the happiest we shall ever experience, we cannot help having our joy intermingled with regret.

As friends we entered and as friends we leave. But let us leave as friends whose bonds of friendship have become tighter—stronger because they must endure a greater strain. May you all have the happiness you desire, but let it be happiness from advancement, both spiritual and material.

And now, Farewell, Classmates, Farewell!

HELEN AMELIA ACKERMAN

"She is looked upon with favor by her friends."

Helen is very quiet. Besides having a unique personality, she has a delightful sense of humor. She is a good student. She has been a member of the Glee Club, and the A. A., and also score-keeper for the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team.

JOHN JOSEPH AHERN

"An Athlete is he, and a good one."

"Chick" likes sports, which accounts for his success in them. He played Football and Baseball in 1928-'29 and '30 and played Inter-class Basketball in the same years. He played on the Hockey team, was a member of the Varsity Club, on the Prom Committee in 1930, and a member of the Student Patrol. "Chick" was in the Glee Club in 1927-'28-'29 and took part in the "Robinson Crusoe" play.

MABEL LAMOURX ATWOOD

"Let none presume to wear an undeserved dignity."

Mabel is quiet, self-possessed, and well disposed toward all. We all wish her success in the business world which she contemplates entering.

Mabel belonged to the Glee Club for four years, to the Library Club and also to the A. A.

DELBERTA HAMRE AVERILL

"Apprehend nothing but jollity."

FOOTBALL

Football

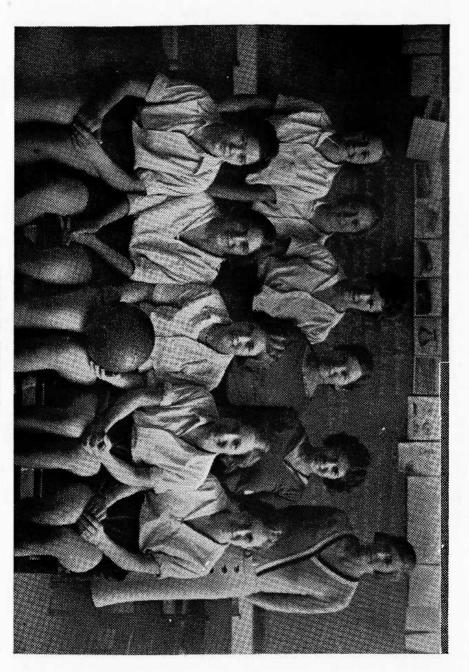

(By JOE PURCELL)

The 1930 season was a banner season for the B. H. S. football team. For the first time in its history the Branford High School turned out a team that has captured the Housatonic League championship. The boys were under the leadership of Capt. Peter Batrow and Manager Joe Purcell. The entire squad is to be congratulated on their fine sportsmanship and fine cooperation. Coach Knecht has proved his ability as a coach of fine football in this year's team, and much credit is due him. The team, as a whole, played a good, clean brand of football, gaining a name for itself among the officials as the cleanest team in the league.

The season opened with a defeat at the hands of the strong Fairfield eleven. Seymour came next, and proved an easy team. The Shelton game was rather a stiff tussle. In the game with Milford High School the boys proved their worth and defeated the next best team in the league. The game with Wallingford was fairly hard. The Derby team was an easy team to beat, but the boys grew over-confident and nearly lost the contest.

The Stratford game was played in a downpour and both teams were handicapped. But Branford had a superior drive and finally won out. The Commercial team had a good defense, but the irresistible interference of Branford paved the way for four touchdowns. On Thanksgiving Day the last game of the season was played at West Haven. The teams battled furiously but neither could gain the upper hand; thus the final game terminated the only tie of the season. The Branford team rolled up 99 points to their opponents' 30.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Girls' Basketball

(By JOE PURCELL)

Branford High has again tackled the long forgotten game of girls' basketball. It was necessary to pick a team of unexperienced players, and therefore we couldn't expect much at the start; but after a few games the team showed wonderful improvement. Miss Norton volunteered to coach the team. Through her hard work and able coaching and with the help of Mr. Knecht, we may say this year's team has proved to have had the most successful season in the history of Branford High School. Teresa Vickstrom, '31, was elected captain, and Natalie Kozeski, '33, was elected manager. We had to overcome the difficulty of playing schools which have had varsity teams in preceding years. A series of games were played, winning four. Our schodule included two games with Derby, two with Shelton, two with West Haven, one with McKeon and one with the Alumni.

The team consisted of:

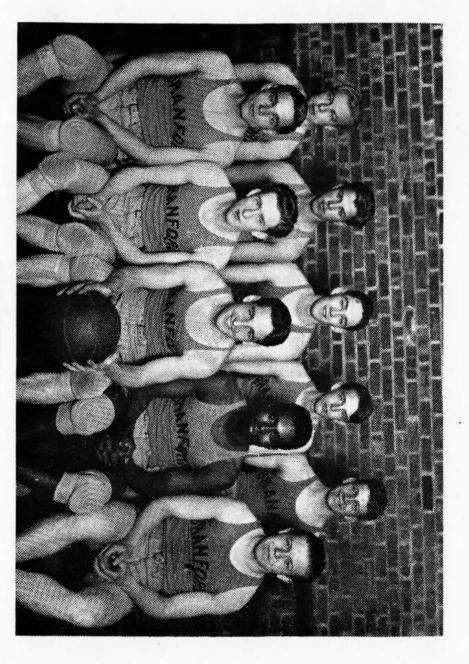

Forwards	Guards	CENTERS
T. Vickstrom (Captain) C. Laich T. Vailette	A. Petela N. Kozeski (Manager) M. Kendall H. Purcell	H. Logan J. Watson C. Clancy L. Ham

We wish to thank all who helped in any way to make this year a success and we hope that girls' basketball will take a new hold and continue in the following years.

The girls' basketball team was the first girls' team for many years in Branford High School. It was organized by Miss Grace Norton, to whom we owe many thanks for her fine work in forming and coaching the team.

We played eight games and succeeded in winning four. The games and scores are as follows:

Derby	37	Branford 7
Shelton	17	Branford 18
Alumnae	16	Branford 22
McKeowns	12	Branford 61
Shelton	27	Branford 23
Derby	25	Branford 24
West Haven	18	Branford 25
West Haven	33	Branford 31

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Boys' Basketball

(By JOE PURCELL)

The basketball season of 1930-1931 proved to be a most successful one. Being handicapped by having only two men left over from last year's championship team, they accomplished their aim by hard work and cooperation.

Joe Purcell, '31, was elected captain, and Carl Potts, '31, was chosen manager. A long and difficult schedule was played, most of the games, however, taking place on the opponents' courts. Out of 14 games 7 were won and 7 lost, these latter 7 being lost by a small margin to much larger schools than Branford.

Under the able leadership of Coach Knecht, Branford High has developed a team which has brought, by their fine spirit and sportsmanship, praise and honor to our school. Our boys can look back with joy to the past season and hope for another like it. The members of the squad were:

Forwards	Centers	Guards
Walter Parcinski	John O'Tell	Joe Purcell (Captain)
Heb Williams	Harvey Royden	Anthony Mockevicz
Frank Lipkvich	Joe Walsh	Louis Aceto
Carl Potts (Manager)
Lester Knapp

BASEBALL

Baseball

(By JOE PURCELL)

Branford High is looking forward to a very successful baseball season. Their first game was played with Hillhouse. In this game, which consisted of twelve innings, Branford was defeated by the score of 2 to 1. In the second game Branford won over Commercial, in a ten inning game, by the score of 8 to 7. Rudy Illig was elected captain, and Walter Pauk, manager.

The schedule for this season is completed and we feel sure that Branford will come out on top.

Hockey

(By JOE PURCELL)

Another sport has been added to the list this year, namely, hockey. The School has not adopted this game as a regular activity but according to the interest which the boys have shown and their successful start, we feel that hockey will be continued.

This winter a group of boys organized a team and without any coaching, played two games and won both of them. The first, with Collegiate Prep, was won by a score of 7 to 0, and the other with Commercial Jayvees, by a score of 4 to 2.

The players were Chick Ahern, H. Pullman, N. Pullman, J. Batrow, P. Batrow, M. Dykun, B. Dennison, R. Illig, D. Harrison.

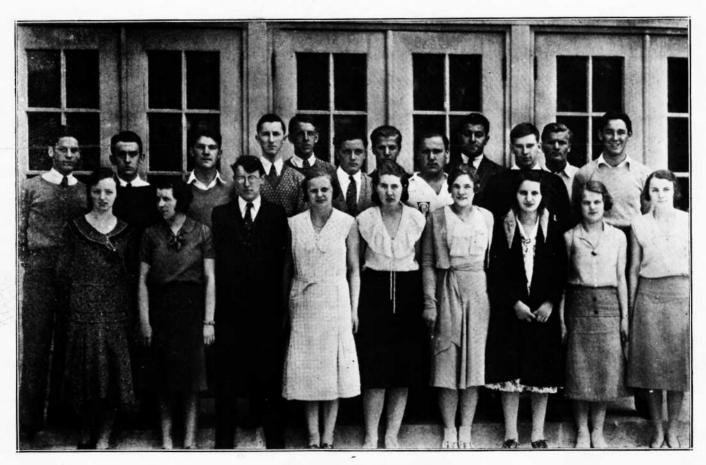

Track

(By JOE PURCELL)

Coach Knecht entered Branford in the inter-scholastic track meet, held at the Arena in New Haven. Lacking in practice and experience, the boys showed remarkable skill and were very successful. They participated in the Housatonic relay. Four schools were included; Branford came in second.

We appreciate the wonderful work and hope that Branford will keep up this sport.

The team consisted of: Heb Williams, Tony Cinquanta, George Jackson, and Edward Duel
