

Poet Laureate Program — Town of Branford, CT

The mission of Branford’s Poet Laureate Program is to celebrate the value of poetry and use poetry as a means to inspire, inform, and entertain the community at large. The Branford Poet Laureate serves as the ambassador of the community’s vibrant literary life, promoting its literary community and celebrating the written word.

Objectives of the Poet Laureate Programs

- Promote reading, understanding, and writing of poetry
- Promote poetry as a form of communication having value—informing, teaching, inspiring and entertaining—in the everyday life of town residents
- Inspire an emerging generation of critical thinkers and writers
- Encourage the reading and writing of literature and poetry
- Promote poetry as a form of literature that has deep roots among people of all ages and cultures
- Read poems or other examples of literature either self-authored or otherwise relevant to public events (e.g., swearing-in ceremonies, holiday celebrations, convocations, graduations) and community-based group events
- Represent Branford in the CT Coalition of Poets Laureate

Terms of Service

- The term of the Branford Poet Laureate is three years, from January to January. The Poet Laureate may apply for multiple terms, as long as they are not consecutive. In the event of a vacancy between terms, an interim Poet Laureate may be appointed by the Search and Review Committee to serve until the following January.
- The poet laureate of Branford is an honorary position and carries no stipend.

Eligibility

- To be considered, a nominee must be a recognized poet and meet the residency requirement for obtaining a library card at one of the Branford public libraries, 18 years of age or older, and available and willing to collaborate with other town poets to develop and present poetry-related activities that address the objectives of the laureate program.
- Interested poets can self-nominate or be nominated by others.

Criteria

- Breadth of experiences in poetry and public readings of poems, including writing, publishing, teaching, critiquing, leading groups, planning and presenting activities, and attending courses related to poetry.
- Comfort level with public speaking.
- Ability and willingness to advance poetry in the public domain, and to participate in various public gatherings and educational sessions throughout his or her term.
- Distinguished achievements.

Application Review and Selection Process

A Search & Review Committee, the members of which are appointed by the James Blackstone Memorial Library, will be comprised of the following representatives:

- A member of the library board
- The Library Director
- A member(s) of the local education community with appropriate credentials
